Kiosk at Fayette Pharmacy

As an owner of a pharmacy, I felt Auction it TODAY was a perfect fit. With a continual reduction in reimbursement from third party payers, I needed an extra source of cash flow. Auction it TODAY provided that cash flow and without any additional inventory. We followed their guidelines for success and our reasonable investment in Auction it TODAY quickly saw monetary results.

Kiosk at Video Village

Dear Mr. Hoose,

My name is Missy Houser and I manage the Joneville AIT67 store. We have been in business for almost 1 1/2 years and I would like to take a moment to tell you that I have had wonderful responses from your staff. Cindy Phillips is my favorite person to talk with. She is always cheery, she always asks nicely for our reports if/when she doesn't receive them and generally is a great person. She could be rude when she calls but she is not. Like I said I really enjoy talking with her and when I do have any questions she always answers them if she can or finds out who the correct person is and then puts me in contact with them.

Brad Duane was really professional and polite when he set our store up and he has helped me a couple of times since then. He is really great for as young as he is. Dave has been a lot of help when I first tried to list a car and continues to be pleasant any time I call him with what seems like stupid questions to me but he is patient and nice and very knowledgeable.

Chris Chafy is always on the ball when I e-mail or call and am very pleased that he can help. And before Chris I always spoke with Gayle in the Brighton store. She was awesome too.

I would just like to thank you for having a wonderful, informed and very pleasant staff. Please give them a pat on their backs from us here in Jonesville, MI.

Sincerely,
Missy Houser, Manager

Kiosk at Evan's Drug Store

Unfortunately, I'm not the owner. But I am the Director of Operations for Evans Drug Stores. I run all the day to day operations outside of the pharmacy for all three stores including the eBay part of our business. I have enjoyed this business immensely ever since we acquired it over a year ago now. There is something very interesting to me about eBay. It has an old style business feel to it like one person selling something to another person, yet it uses the most modern technology that there is to accomplish this. It really is fascinating.

We believe that it has paid off. We are shipping multiple packages everyday. New customers are coming in and calling every single day, and we have 2 full time employees and a part time employee and we are still making a little money. We are approaching the end of our first estate sale and have 2 more possibilities on the horizon based solely on advertising and what we did on the first estate. We feel like we are pretty close to becoming the household name in this town for a drop-off spot for things that people want to sell. There are a few areas for us yet to get stronger in and I look forward to those days.

I have seen the world moving closer and closer to e-commerce as the years have rolled by, and so I knew that this was going to be big when Auction it TODAY first approached us with it. We are trying now to secure the rights to the whole of mid-Michigan because we believe in this business.

Kiosk at Pack and Mail Plus

I have been extremely happy with our choice in Auction it TODAY. It has helped our business develop new customers that never used us in the past for the current products and services that we offer and it has given our current customer base another reason to use us. It really has increased our traffic flow on a regular basis and brought in a very profitable service to add to our store.

Kiosk at Pack Mail 'n More

The addition of the Auction it Today service to our Packaging & Shipping Specialist store has been very positive for our business. The synergy between our eBay auction service and our shipping store has been a tremendous benefit. I feel our customers have added confidence bidding on our auctions knowing that the items will be professionally packed and delivered by an experienced staff of shipping experts. We are currently in the process of hiring a full time Outside Sales Representative to capitalize on the tremendous opportunity Auction it Today creates for selling big ticket items such as Automobiles, Boats, Airplanes, and Real Estate, and the best part is, the Auction it Today service requires very little space in our store.
